

Client Testimonials

Some feedback comments from our Clients

“Trainers were professional and the training was conducted in a very organized manner. The training added value to our business because the trainees have responded well and are working in a dedicated fashion.”

(Chainsaw and Brushcutter operator basic – Eastern Cape - 2012)

How did training add value to your business? “I am very impressed in the improvement shown by the drivers after the training.”

(Basic Tractor Driver Course – Melmoth - August 2012)

“Some of my staff never attended school, but the trainer was able to assist them, even dealing with Zulu and English language gaps that they had.”

(Safety Awareness – Kokstad - 2012)

“In this course the trainer adapted easily with my staff, and his patience rewarded him my vote as the best instructor from KTS...everybody is equipped.” (Fire Awareness – Kokstad – 2012)

“All courses - well presented by the Instructor” (Health & Safety Reps, Incident Investigation – Kranskop – 2012)

“Driving attitude will be improved, and safety measures also improved. I highly recommend this training to be conducted to reduce incidents” (Defensive Driving – Richmond – 2013)

Will training add value to your business? “Very effective and to be monitored continuously – Training content very precise and easy to understand” (Safety Awareness – Eston – 2012)

“Thanks for the e-mail feedback and individual ratings. The trainer was very friendly and courteous – we hope training will achieve the desired effect.” (Fusarium Course – Bishopstowe – 2012)

“Trainer was very professional and was punctual. The way he taught our staff was excellent – keep up the good work!!!” (Motor Vehicle Driver Assess & Refresh – Hilton – 2012)

“Refresher courses are essential to keep our staff competent – Training was conducted in good faith and with diligence” (Basic Chainsaw Operator – Paulpietersburg – 2012)

Kwamahlati Training Services cc.

“We really appreciate your instructor – he has an eye for guiding our drivers to full competence – Thank you” (Labour truck driver – Harding – 2012)

“Your training was step-by-step, from simple to more complex work with organized facts for the presentation, and participants were able to ask questions and express their views as the course was conducted.” (Drivers’ Training – Greytown – 2012)

